

PRE OPERATION TESTS

You have been requested to have blood tests collected prior to your operation.

The New Zealand Blood Service require specimens to be processed a few days before an operation.

Please take the enclosed Laboratory form to any one of the Diagnostic Medlab Collection Rooms listed on the back of the form, 3-4 days before your operation date so that these tests can be collected and processed.